

Pilates Instructor

A New York Pilates Instructor teaches Small Group Pilates Reformer Classes for 10-14 students. We have an emphasis on making sure to give a fun and rigorous workout that will make students want to come back for more. Instructors should teach and train in a fun, hands on motivating fast-paced style that teaches and explains the benefits of the workout while students sweat and shake and sculpt their bodies to achieve their best selves all while being safe and accommodating for different skill levels or injured students. Instructors should act as a representative of the NYP brand at all times and should dress as the face of NYP. We are an edgy, fashion forward brand that loves to shake things up and promotes creative thinking and is ready for growth and change. You Should love music, working out and motivating people to be their best and push themselves in a supportive way.
